

THE TIGER

1958

Tiger Tales Staff

DEDICATION

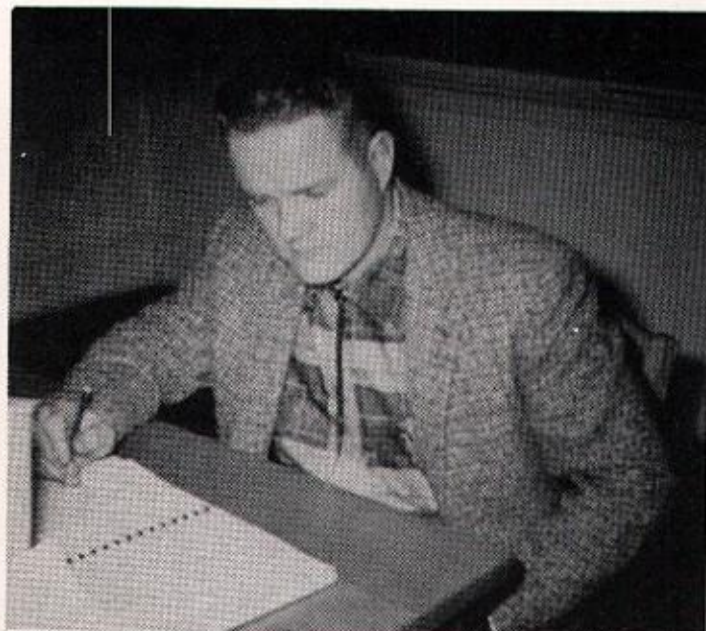

To Mr. Buterbaugh, the sponsor of this annual who has given so much of his time to make it a success, we, the Annual Staff of Dalton High School, Dalton, Nebraska, in the year 1958 proudly dedicate this annual.

The 1958 TIGER TALES represents one full year of high school life--classes, exams, games, proms, students, teachers, buildings, books, and lectures.

Words and pictures are but a backward glance into the school months just past. This glance will serve only as a reminder, to store away a period of time for future use is impossible, but the filing between the covers of a book, of one year of school life for re-living in the future was our aim, and is our accomplishment.

Let's look into the crystal ball far into the future. Yes, to the spring of 1988. Coming into clear focus we see a picture of the graduating class of '58. Changes have certainly been made!

The former Dorothy Bowman, now Mrs. Gene Frerichs, is still working at the local hospital. Incidentally when they operate she still counts the sponges.....

It seems as though Bob Warren has finally found the girl of his dreams. They have a big ranch in Colorado and raise Palominos as a hobby.....

Elsie Boyer now has her own private dancing studio in Denver. She specializes in the modern bop--one of her best students is from Hemingford.....

Bob Beyer is now a multi-millionaire. It seems he is still judging hogs but only in his spare time. Incidentally he has his own radio station, WBOB.....

Arriving in a red and white thunderbird is Mrs. Ronald Dykman, formerly known as Betty Gillespie. Ronnie and she are the new managers of the John Deere Company. Incidentally they now have two sets of twins.....

Ron Warren has now retired from pro football and is coaching a team of his own. Ron finally found a girl to support him. It seems they are getting along very well.....

The famous author Carol Heine has written a new book on etiquette called "Get Hep." She also has three television shows for teenagers.....

Marjorie Frerichs is happier than ever. She and her husband, Larry Rapp, have done so well in the trailer business that they are taking a second honeymoon to the Riviera in their new Edsel.....

Kathy Pelster has finally found her man and is happy and content being a housewife and raising her twelve kids.....

Jo Ann Willeke is now a famous teacher in a girls school. But it seems this career will not last too long as we hear she and Dick Burke are drawing blueprints for a Cape Cod home.

The famous geologist, Marvin Mead, is becoming quite wealthy. It seems all of his girl friends have been giving him oil wells.....

Herb Klinge is now the full owner of a chain of filling stations. Herb is driving a solid gold cadillac. It seems his latest novel was quite a success.....

Leon Winters, the famous woman hater, is still a bachelor but it doesn't look like it will last as the famous star June Mansfield has a mad crush on him. It seems as though calls at two a.m. are getting him down.....

Gary Kruger finally married a girl from Gurley. They have six children and it seems Gary is getting frustrated as his wife insists on the children's boxing lessons.....

Believe it or not, a man has finally caught and married the former Anna Faye Weed. She is still working at the Sands Hotel, the famous night club in Las Vegas, but it is rumored that her husband is going to make her quit so she will stay home and cook for him.....

The annual Dalton Fall Festival was held September 16 and 17.

On the evening of the 16th Dalton played a football game with McGrew.

The school was honored by having Judy Pelster and Betty Gillespie as attendants to the queen, Penny Meyers.

On the 17th school was dismissed. The band led the parade, which was held in the morning. The school had a float entered in the parade under the theme "Nebraska History." The Indians on the float were: Martha Boyer, Terry Van Anne, and June Ann Kurth.

FRESHMAN INITIATION

It is an old tradition for the Senior Class of Dalton High School to initiate the greenhorns. This year the Freshman Initiation was held September sixth. The seniors planned the costume which the freshmen had to wear all day and to the ceremony in the evening. At the ceremony the freshmen were served a very delicious lunch. After the initiation a dance was held. The freshmen led the seniors a merry chase throughout the day and it was an event neither class will forget.

The Senior Carnival was held October fourth. The evening's fun began with a program by the grade school with the theme centering around "A Western Campfire." The main concession stands were zingo, a fish pond, a miniature theater, and wrestling. The king and queen for the evening were Carolyn Nelson and James Zeigler. Mrs. Ben Pelster won the electric blanket and John Adams won the twin lamps. Proceeds of $375 went to the Senior Class treasury.

HOMECOMING ROYALTY

Anna Faye Steed
Bob Warren

The Widow Peppin, Carol Winkelman, and deaf old Pappy Stelsby, Ronnie Ray Warren were engaged in a mountain feud. To make matters worse, Pappy's son, Luke-Leon Gillespie and Ma's daughter, Emmy-Judy Pelster, were in love.

Meanwhile the mountain was all agog over the homecoming of the Triffet Girls, portrayed by Marge Buck and Ellen Holden. Their manager Sol Selverstien-Stuart Bancroft, came in quest of more hillbilly singers.

The parson, Vernon Jobman, was on hand to join Luke and Emmy, Ma and Pa, Bridget O'Flanngan-Lorraine Mead, and Loues Cattora-Jerry Lindsey, Wash Jeddo-Lloyd Kettler, and the Triffet Girls in marriage.

Mr. Buterbaugh directed HILL-BILLY COURTSHIP with the aid of Gary Harris, assistant director, Tom Lindsey and Lyle Graff, set directors, and Faye Harms, make-up.
